2022 OSUN-EDI Summer Workshop

Open Society University Network Summer Workshop 2022
Public Finance and Economic Policy

The OSUN Economic Democracy Initiative Summer Workshop in Public Finance and Economic Policy is aimed at undergraduate students interested in public policy for addressing economic instability and insecurity, as well as in understanding the financing capacity and policy space available to different governments to do so. A full description of the Summer Workshop is available at: edi.bard.edu/teaching.

Students must be 18 years of age or older to participate in the Summer Workshop. Current Bard College policy requires campus visitors to be vaccinated against COVID-19. If you cannot meet this requirement, please do not apply.

To be considered for the Summer Workshop, complete this application form, and send it as a PDF document to edi@opensocietyuniversitynetwork.org with the subject line "LASTNAME Summer Workshop Application."

Please have a current or former instructor send a short recommendation via email to edi@opensocietyuniversitynetwork.org regarding your participation in the workshop. All application materials should be submitted by December 31, 2021.

Please submit the following to edi@opensocietyuniversitynetwork.org:

1. Your application form
2. Your current transcript
3. A statement of motivation
4. A short recommendation email from your faculty or advisor.

Space is limited, spots will be allocated subject to a successful application. For all accepted applicants, tuition and room and board are covered. OSUN participants are eligible for travel assistance, in addition to tuition and room and board.
